HOW TO READ TAROT

Learning anything new can be daunting. Especially when there is so much conflicting information out there. Tarot is no exception. With 78 cards, so many decks to choose from, and personal interpretations it can be impossible to know where to start.

That's where Doodle Tarot comes in.

We'll start you off with some basic knowledge before you dive into your deck. First, shuffle through the cards and take a look at the imagery. Try covering the words like you did with your flashcards in school. What do you see? What do you feel? Does any kind of message come through to you when you're looking at the pictures? If you're unable to, THAT'S OKAY! Intuition needs to be honed just like any other skill

After you've looked through your deck shuffle the cards around. You can do this any way you'd like. Poker style, back and forth, you can even toss them into a big pile and mix them around! There is no wrong way to do it. Just make sure all of the cards are mixed up.

Now you're ready to draw some cards! Choose 3 cards from the top, bottom, middle, whatever you prefer, and lay them out in front of you. This is called a 3 card pull. We like to call this problem, solution, outcome, but there are many ways to read this spread.

Look at your first card. This is the issue you're currently facing. Like we did before we're going to study the images, but this time we're going to read the keywords too! Is the card upsidedown? No worries, just read whatever words you see to get the meaning!

Next, look at the middle card. This is your solution. Really study this one. Take in the image and the words and allow yourself to feel where this energy might be pointing toward. If it doesn't' make sense to you that's okay! It might not resonate until days, weeks, even months later!

Lastly, we'll look at the third card. This is your outcome. This is an indicator that if you take the steps offered to you in the middle card this is the outcome you can expect. There is no good or bad answer in tarot. It's all about your perception, so if you find you don't like the answer you got it might be because you need to delve deeper into the issue. And if that's the case go ahead and pull more cards until you feel like you've satisfied your question!

If this all feels overwhelming even with the keywords and simplistic images don't worry! There are so many great resources online from websites to books that will help you become an expert in no time!

Happy reading Doodlers!

MAJOR ARCANA The Fool's Adventure

THE FOOL 🗃

WELCOME TO DOODLE TAROT! This is your guide, the Fool! They are a young, spirited chap that is ready to take the journey with you to meet all the major cards of Tarot! They begin this quest with blind optimism, unknowing of any dangers ahead and doesn't care! They will face it with joy! Luckily, they have their loyal pet, Spot, to warn them when they take the wrong path.

STHE MAGICIAN S

As the Fool walks along his path, he hears a very intriguing man calling to him. The man, known as the Magician, was very excited to show the Fool all his magical tricks, all for the price of one flower. Out of thin air, he could manifest anything the Fool desired.

The Magician was very talented! When his magical show was over, the Magician warned the Fool to watch out for illusions and trickery. Later, they discovered that the Magician WAS the trickster!

CHIGH PRIESTESS C

Down on his luck and confused, the Fool found a woman with a magical crystal ball, her eyes closed. On her hat, a 3rd glowing eye. She called herself the High Priestess, advisor and spiritual guide. A woman of intuition, the High Priestess tells the Fool they will find great treasures, but to tread carefully, as the High Priestess also predicted great dangers as well. She told the Fool to trust their inner voice, and listen to the unconscious, to find their way.

THE EMPRESS 😳

Inspired by the High Priestess, the Fool is prompted to pay their respects to the Empress of the land. At first, they are nervous, but the Empress is a kind, motherly woman. Surrounded by flowers, she is the embodiment of the perfect woman: strong, courageous, and loving. The Empress is also heavily pregnant, due to bring opportunity and family at any moment. She gives the Fool a flower of their own to remind them to be loving on their journey.

THE EMPEROR

4

After meeting the Empress, she told the Fool that they needed to go and meet her husband, in a valley of mountains. The Fool found a serious man sitting on a throne made of stone. The Emperor holds an ankh scepter and an orb filled with money, depicting the world of which he is ruler of. Despite his authoritative energy, he had a gentleness of a father that the Fool recognized. He welcomed the Fool to his kingdom, telling them that they were welcome to explore all.

了THE HEIROPHANT ①

Having been blessed by royalty, the Fool continued and found himself at a temple. In the temple sat a man dressed in robes, people bowing down before him in prayer. He was very serious, and very traditional. Some enjoyed the prayer, while others didn't seem to. Nonetheless, everyone conformed to the prayer and kept to their morals. The Fool observed the ceremony respectfully. Afterward the Fool felt lighter, and their spirit was excited to continue.

THE LOVERS 0

Once they were blessed, the Fool was allowed into a special garden. Much to their surprise, they saw two people ... naked! Embarrassed, the Fool covered their eyes. But then, an angel appeared and told the Fool not to worry. These two people were the Lovers, unafraid to show their vulnerable selves to each other. The two were deeply in love, but the angel above warned the Lovers, and the Fool, of the obstacles in their path.

B THE CHARIOT B

7

The Fool's feet were starting to hurt from all the walking, and they knew they had much longer to travel. Luckily, a man in a chariot came along and asked the Fool if they needed a ride. He was a confident man, with his two sphinxes, both of which had conflicting opinions on where they should go next. But the driver had control over that decision. Joyous, the Fool hopped onto the Chariot and they all drove for miles to the Fool's next destination.

P STRENGTH P

The Fool was dropped off in a field where they saw a big, scary lion! Terrified, the Fool was about to run when a beautiful woman appeared telling them not to fear the lion. With great bravery, the woman calmly walked to the lion and gave her a gentle hug. The Fool was amazed as the angry lion began to calm down in her arms. They learned that the greatest strength came from courage and compassion!

A THE HERMIT A

After leaving the lion the Fool got lost! He ended up in some very lonely mountains and began to worry! How would they find their way on their way in these big mountains?? Soon, an old Hermit man appeared. He was quiet but kind. He carried a star within his lantern that shined brightly and allowed the Fool to see the path once again. Softly, the Hermit told them to meditate, and trust their inner guide to show them the way.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE E

The Fool was led to the top of the highest mountain. They looked up in the sky and, with awe, discovered a giant wheel, forever turning. It was held by the god, Anubis, and protected by a Sphinx. The wheel was surrounded by a bull, a bird, a lion, and an angel, all who were studying different tomes. Anubis told the Fool that the wheel represented life, and how it constantly turns. It was a wheel of destiny, and a sign that great fortune would come to the Fool.

11

in justice in

Finding their destiny was a great turning point for the

Fool, and as they came down the mountain, they found a building of law. Inside, they met a woman known as Justice. Justice was there to bring balance between truth and law. She could see the cause and effect of situations and brought clarity to sticky events. Justice could see the Fool was clear in their intentions and said to continue to learn and grow!!

THE HANGED MAN 3

The Fool came across a dense forest, and realized they were not alone. The Fool turned to find a man happily hanging upside down from a tree! The Fool asked if he needed help, but the hanging man told them that he was hanging upside down on purpose. By sacrificing his comfort, it allowed him to take a pause. He was able to release his worries and gain new perspective on life. Baffled, the Fool shrugged and left the man to stay in the tree.

13 O DEATH O

Next, the Fool came across a beautiful garden. The people he saw were crying. Some were clearly mourning, while others seemed joyful. In the distance, a skeleton soldier was riding a pale horse. The garden behind him died as he rode forth. He was known as Death. Despite how scary his name was, Death was kind and welcoming. His presence meant changes were coming, a perfect time to let go of the old.

14 TEMPERANCE

After leaving Death the Fool found a pond where a beautiful angel stood on the water. They were sure they had seen the angel before earlier on their journey. The angel urged them to come closer while pouring water evenly between two cups.

This, she told the Fool, represented balance. She told the Fool to be patient and take the middle path. There they would find their true answers.

THE DEVIL I

As they were walking, the Fool's dog, Spot, ran off toward a cave. The Fool called after him as he followed him into the dark cave. There, he saw a naked but playful Devil dancing in the flames. He stopped dancing and laughed. The Devil warned the Fool that if they were to fall off their path with bad decisions, or addictions that they would end up just like the two people chained to the pillar

he stood upon. Terrified, Spot and the Fool ran away!

O THE TOWER O

As the pair ran from the cave, the sky above began to darken. A storm suddenly appeared, and they hurried toward a tower atop the mountain for shelter. But suddenly a bolt of lightning struck. It was a disaster! With flames rising people who lived in the tower had no choice but to abandon their home. But once the storm, and flames, subsided the King and Queen saw that there was enough left to begin rebuilding. The fool found this admirable would continue despite failure.

袋 THE STAR 袋

As night fell the Fool was exhausted. They searched for a place to rest, and through the darkness a bright star in the sky began to glow. The bright light brought new hope and faith to the Fool. As he made his way to the lake, he saw a nude woman illuminated by the star. She smiled while she poured water onto a flower in the lake. The flower sprung to life. The Fool felt so inspired by the sight that, after resting, they skipped along with rejuvenated energy!

😳 THE MOON 😳

Soon, the moon rose high in the sky and brought a little light. They followed a stream, where Spot heard howling! The moonlight revealed that on the other side of the stream appeared to be a wolf. Spot ran over and howled along. As the Fool got closer, they realized the Moon was creating an illusion! Using the intuition that the Fool had gained on their journey, they could see the wolf was just another dog, and the grass was not actually greener on the other side!

Having walked all night, the Fool and Spot were thankful to finally see the Sun rise on the horizon! The sun beamed down at them with the most joyous smile. The Fool laughed with happiness as a baby on a horse came trotting up to them, giggling with delight. The baby waved a flag to show the Fool that their journey was a success and nearing the end! The Fool celebrated, knowing that they would find their purpose soon!

JUDGEMENT

Coming to the end of their journey, the Fool watched as coffins with people inside raising their arms to the sky. The clouds parted to reveal the all-seeing eye. The Eye looked down upon the fool and told them that this was their day of reckoning. A spiritual awakening was coming, and they must reflect on all they had learned. Only then, would they find fulfillment. The Fool agreed and the All-Seeing Eye told the Fool to finish their journey.

THE WORLD 🛞

The Fool and Spot had finally reached a place where, up in the sky, a gorgeous wreath appeared. They watched in awe as a woman rose with two rods of gold. The creatures of the wheel of fortune had also come, all of them wearing graduation caps! "Congratulations!" Said the woman, "You have achieved your goals! Your path has been completed, and you are no longer a Fool, but a Master of this path! Now, embark on a new one, and learn more!"
