Welcome to the

LOVELY LADIES TAROT

This deck was inspired by the traditional Rider-Waite Tarot cards, with a lovely twist. It was created with the intention to represent many different women at different times in their lives. I believe every person is beautiful in their own unique way, in turn, I wanted to create a deck where every person could find someone that looked like them and feel beautiful because of it.

When I first began illustrating different tarot art, I did not have the intention to create a deck. But as I continued I felt inspired to create the full deck and make sure each card was illustrated with intention. Honestly, I didn't know much about tarot or the meanings of the cards, but throughout the process of making this deck, I have found so many cards that resonate with me and resonated with the phases I went through during their creation.

I hope each person that uses this deck feels the intention, dedication, and love I put into each card. I hope they are able to see the beauty in each illustration and understand that it is a reflection of themselves and their divine beauty.

Always remember, Lovely, you are beautiful, powerful, and divine.

The MAJOR ARCANNA

The Major Arcana in Tarot represents life lessons and archetypal themes throughout one's journey through life and on the path to enlightenment. Each of the card's meanings a deep and complex and mean different things to different people. The Major Arcana tell a story, following The Fool's journey as she encounters the other cards. Learning, growing, and understanding more about her journey with each encounter.

THE FOOL

Keywords: Adventure, Freedom, Fun, Naivety

Reversed: Risk Taking, Recklessness, Unsureness

A young lively girl sets out on a journey that is all her own, even though she might not be ready for it. The Fool has no fear and throws caution to the wind, too excited by the thought of diving into a new adventure to overthink. The stepping stones of life have aligned for her and she happily jumps from one to the next without the worry of falling. She is leaving her old life behind, carrying all she needs in her knapsack. Leaving can be hard and scary, but it's worth the risk of failure for a better future. Good luck, Lovely.

THE MAGICIAN

Keywords: Manifestation, Inspiration, Resourcefulness, Power

Reversed: Untapped Talent, Sequestered Opportunities, Greed, Manipulation

The powerful Magician channels the spiritual realm, connecting it with the material world. She harnesses the tools, energy, and resources to turn her dreams into reality. On her head is an infinity symbol, representing her access to unlimited potential and ideas. The leaves sprouting around her represent the growth and fruition of her aspirations. Now is the time to focus on your dreams, and put the work in to bring them to reality, Lovely.

THE HIGH PRIESTESS

Keywords: Divine Feminine, Intuition, Sacred Knowledge, Spiritual Enlightenment

Reversed: Disconnected Intuition, Secrets, Withdrawal, Incomprehension

A white-haired woman sits in a trance, channeling the other side to understand the sacred knowledge that has been passed through her. She opened her third eye long ago, representing her connection to the subconscious and unseen world. The High Priestess is telling you to embrace the Divine Feminine. Trust your intuition, compassion, and empathy. Feel rather than think, Lovely, and you too shall be enlightened.

THE EMPRESS

Keywords: Beauty, Femininity, Abundance, Nurturing, New Birth

Reversed: Dependence on others, Scarcity, Not Taking Care of Yourself

A tanned woman, with beautiful brunette hair and honey-colored eyes, sits on her throne. She is truly beautiful inside and out. She wears a red gown and star-tipped crown, representing her connection to nature and the star Venus. The wheat growing around her represents abundance and comfort. She has fully embraced her femininity and enjoys caring for others, making her all the more beautiful. But always remember to take care of yourself too, Lovely.

THE EMPEROR

Keywords: Power, Discipline, Leadership, Reliability

Reversed: Domination, Power Trip, Lack of Control, Inflexibility

The Emperor is strong-willed and firm in her decisions. She always has a well-thought-out plan and knows how to execute it. She represents the masculine energy in all women; strong, firm, and powerful. She can command the attention of everyone in the room and knows how to lead a group to victory, no matter the odds. In her determination, she may rub people the wrong way, but some sacrifices must be made to succeed in this world. You are strong and powerful, Lovely.

THE HIEROPHANT

Keywords: Spiritual Wisdom,
Religious Beliefs, Tradition,
Community

Reversed: Personal Beliefs, Freedom,
Challenging the Status Quo

The Hierophant holds a triple scepter, representing her religious standing, and points two fingers up toward the Heavens signifying her connection with a higher power. She is a strict, yet generous mentor, happy to guide you through the doctrine and teach you her spiritual knowledge. However, she will only teach you the traditional conventions and does not encourage any parting from the doctrine. The sense of community can bring you together but don't feel afraid to explore your own beliefs, Lovely.

THE LOVERS

Keywords: Love, Harmony, Security, Sexuality, Relationships

Reversed: Self-Love, Disharmony, Disfunction

The Lovers find themselves in a firm embrace, their heads nestled into the other's shoulder. In this embrace their power is fused to create a harmonious union of different energies. A burning heart on one lover's arm represents sexual energy, fiery and passionate. While the sweet expressions on their faces represent kindness and respect for each other. Feminine, masculine, sexual, or platonic, all love is love. Love is the most powerful force on this earth.

THE CHARIOT

Keywords: Will Power,
Determination, Success, Beating the Odds

Reversed: Self-Discipline, Opposition,
Victim Mentality

A lovely wheelchair-bound woman sits upon her chariot. She has gone through a lot, but she is determined to beat the odds. The flowers growing around her represent her will to grow through hardships. She has lofty goals and she is not just going to wait for them to fall into her lap, she takes fate into her own hands. When you apply discipline, commitment, and willpower you can achieve any goal you set for yourself, Lovely.

STRENGTH

Keywords: Strength, Courage, Influence, Compassion

Reversed: Inner Strength, Self-Doubt, Raw Emotion

A white knight holds her sword to the sky, representing her strength and control over her emotions. She looks out, knowing she is going to face a fierce battle soon or is in the midst of one. Instead of becoming ferocious and violent like the beast she faces, she continues to be calm and patient. She uses her inner strength to subdue and control the situation and turn the tides in her favor. The Knight gives you her strength and influence to navigate your challenges and find success, Lovely.

THE HERMIT

Keywords: Soul-Searching,
Introspection, Reflection, Alone Time

Reversed: Isolation, Loneliness,
Withdrawal, Over Stimulation

The Hermit holds a plant, admiring it in the dim light of her lantern. She enjoys the quiet time to think and soul-search. The plant symbolizes her inner growth during this reflection period. The lantern gives her just enough light to see the next few steps, but not light her entire path; she is okay with that. The Hermit enjoys her alone time and cherishes it. This time helps her see with new eyes and have a better understanding of herself and the world around her.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Keywords: Good Luck, Good Karma, Life Cycles, A Turning Point

Reversed: Bad Luck, Bad Karma, Resistance to Change

A woman sits admiring the star she caught falling from the sky. The Star represents the happy moments of life that can pass by like a shooting star. The Wheel of Fortune represents change, for better or for worse. If you are going through a difficult time, know that things will change for the better. When things are good, take time to cherish those sweet moments because they can be gone in a blink. And always remember, you get out what you put into the world, Lovely. If you put out good, it will come back to you.

JUSTICE

Keywords: Justice, Fairness, Truth, Cause & Effect

Reversed: Injustice, Lack of Accountability, Dishonesty

The Justice holds a sword in one hand and the scales in another. She represents balance, fairness, and truth. Justice may appear when you have a big decision to make, reminding you that whatever choice you make can have long-term repercussions. She will ask you to examine what is right and what is wrong to make sure you can live with your final decision. This decision may have you diving deeper into your beliefs and questioning what your truth really is. Your truth is what makes you, Lovely. Be sure you know what it is.

THE HANGED MAN

Keywords: Surrender, New Perspective, Letting Go

Reversed: Resistance, Stalling, Indecision

A woman hangs upside down, letting gravity pull her down and release her stress. Hanging upside down has allowed her to see from new perspectives and understand what really matters. She understands that you have to pause to evaluate life and determine where to go next. If you don't pause, sometimes the universe will make you pause, at a time that seems very inconvenient. Your flow can be blocked and you don't even realize it until you take that pause. Surrender to the pause, let change happen, see from a new perspective, and flow more freely Lovely.

DEATH

Keywords: Peace, Fear, Renewal, Inevitability

Reversed: Inner Purging, Transformation, Resistance to Change

Death is alluring to all those that encounter her. Some choose to fight her, while others choose to stare directly at her, trying to understand. Those that meet her with grace, find beauty and comfort in her presence. Death's dark hair cloaks her body, representing the mysterious future ahead. The flowers sprouting out of her ribs represent rebirth and beauty. She is the necessary mediator of the past, the present, and the future. She will help guide you to the next stage of your life, even if the transition may cause fear and despair about what is being left behind. May you find peace in the next stage, Lovely.

TEMPERANCE

Keywords: Balance, Moderation, Patience, Purpose

Reversed: Imbalance, Excess, Self-Healing

A curvy woman with long flowing hair holds two cups and pours from one to the other, representing the balance between two different aspects of your life. A beautiful rainbow shines behind her, representing the rewards that come with patience. Temperance brings balance to your life and your soul through moderation and patience. You may be giving too much to one aspect of your life and neglecting the other pieces. Align with your true purpose and be diligent about finding balance in your life, Lovely.

THE DEVIL

Keywords: Shadow Self, Sexuality, Attachment, Restriction

Reversed: Releasing Limiting Beliefs, Exploring Dark Thoughts, Detachment

The Devil is a tattooed woman with bright hair and horns, she has an alternative vibe and often scares those that may be more conservative. The Devil represents the self-sabotaging behaviors that are keeping you from becoming your best self. She is whispering in your ear telling you to pick the path of instant gratification rather than the one that will truly benefit you in the long run. She is keeping you addicted to those bad behaviors and addictions. But understand you are not powerless, you must take accountability and actively choose to do better for yourself, Lovely.

THE TOWER

Keywords: Sudden Change, Chaos, Revelation, Awakening

Reversed: Averting Disaster, Personal Transformation, Fear of Change

The Tower is solid and sturdy, but her foundation has been shaking for a long time now. One unexpected and powerful bolt of lightning was enough to finally knock her down. Things have quickly fallen into absolute chaos and all you can do is watch everything burn to the ground. Take time to mourn, it can be difficult to accept such drastic and sudden changes. Find peace knowing you will rebuild stronger, wiser, and more resilient.

THE STAR

Keywords: Hope, Faith, Spirituality, Renewal

Reversed: Lack of Faith, Self-Trust, Disconnection

A glowing woman pours water out of a starry pitcher renewing the cycle of filling and pouring it out. The sound of it splashing to the ground is serene and calm, a welcome reprieve after a period of chaos. The chaos has stripped you down to your core essence; a powerful, divine being, just like the Star. She grants you hope, peace, and new inspiration to follow your dreams as a new cycle begins.

THE MOON

Keywords: Illusion, Intuition, The Subconscious, Repressed Emotions

Reversed: Past Trauma, Confusion, Dreams

A dark-skinned woman with flowing hair stands between two large towers while flowers bloom around her. The moon is a symbol of intuition, dreams, and the subconscious mind. The Moon's light is dim, and the darkness can be frightening. You may not be able to see everything you want to, but sometimes seeing too much can be overwhelming. Trust the moon, her light may be dim, but it still illuminates your path if you follow your intuition and don't let your fears scare you away, Lovely.

THE SUN

Keywords: Positivity, Fun, Warmth, Vitality

Reversed: Overly Optimistic, Inner Child, Pessimism

A youthful woman with vibrant red hair sits, letting the sun warm her skin, and watches the flowers bloom. She has always been a ray of sunshine to others on their darkest days, sharing her warmth and happiness with everyone around her. The Sun radiates positivity and will give you strength during difficult times. You get back what you put into the world, Lovely, so let it be good health, good times, good people, and good vibes.

JUDGEMENT

Keywords: Judgment, Absolution, Higher Consciousness, Decisions

Reversed: Inner Critic, Reflection, Ignoring the Call

A short-haired woman appears from the clouds, blowing her golden trumpet to call all those ready to be judged. She calls to you, inviting you to tune into her higher consciousness. Let it guide you in the right direction and make good decisions. There is no way to avoid this judgment, so knowing you have made the best choices for yourself, will help you have no regrets in the end, Lovely.

THE WORLD

Keywords: Completion, Achievement, Success, Travel

Reversed: Seeking Closure, Instant Gratification, Short-Cutting Work

A naked woman cradles a rotating globe in her arms, representing the continual cycle of completion and starting anew. The plants growing around her represent her success and growth throughout her many cycles. The World appears when you are close to finishing a cycle or large project. She joins you in your celebrations of finished projects and honoring your achievements. Be sure to rest, relax, and celebrate as one cycle comes to an end because a new one is soon to begin, Lovely

Suit of WANDS

The Suit of Wands in Tarot deals with primal energy and inspiration. Wands with their magical flames represent wild, unpredictable energy. This energy can be directed in many different ways, but without proper harnessing, can be destructive and draining. The Wands address who you are at your core; what drives you, what gives you energy, and what makes you tick. The Suit of Wands is associated with the element of fire; relating to passion, energy, enthusiasm, and sexuality

ACE OF WANDS

Keywords: Inspiration, New Opportunities, Growth, Potential

Reversed: An Emerging Idea, Lack of Direction, Distraction, Procrastination

A hand holding a vibrant, glowing wand emerges from the clouds as if they are offering you new ideas and opportunities. The wand represents flowing energy, whether that be spiritual, creative, or physical. The hand offering it to you represents new potentials and new opportunities being presented to you; a new project idea, a new job offer, or the start of a new class to help grow your skills. The Ace is the seed of something new, it is up to you to make it grow and blossom to its full beautiful potential, Lovely.

TWO OF WANDS

Keywords: New Phase of Life, Excitement for the Future, Planning,

Reversed: Short Term Goals, Fear of the Unknown, Lack of Planning

A spirited woman with braided hair holds a small globe in her hands, representing the world at her fingertips and the enormous potential she holds. The eye tattoo on her chest represents leading with her heart and pursuing the opportunities that speak to her on a deeper level. The Two of Wands represents an exciting new chapter of your life; motherhood, graduation, marriage, or adulthood. No matter what your next chapter is, know that it will take some planning and effort, but in the end, it will be fulfilling and beautiful.

THREE OF WANDS

Keywords: Broadened Horizons, Progress, Foresight, Traveling Abroad

Reversed: Staying Sheltered, Lack of Foresight, Unexpected Delays

A woman stands keenly between the three wands around her. She takes in the vast open space before her, with wands burning bright. The woman has left her place of comfort and her journey is well underway. She is making progress, and everything is moving steadily ahead due to her good planning. The Three of Wands represents progress and expanding on the opportunities you have already been given. Explore a new angle of your journey, maximize your potential, broaden your horizons, or travel to a new place with more opportunities, Lovely.

FOUR OF WANDS

Keywords: Connection, Homecoming, Reuniting, Celebration

Reversed: Transition, Homesickness, Personal Celebration

Two women stand together between four wands, one faces you while the other faces away. This represents that the women are on two different paths in their lives, but their embrace shows that they still love and connect with each other. The Four of Wands represents returning home and reconnecting with those familiar people and places you left behind. They are the support system you didn't realize you missed so much. Now that you are home, take time to celebrate your journey and relax with the ones you love.

FIVE OF WANDS

Keywords: Conflict, Competition, Tension, Feeling Uncomfortable

Reversed: Inner Conflict, Conflict Avoidance, Tension Release

A woman stands uncomfortably locked between five wands, representing being stuck in conflict. Four of the wands burn furiously, while hers does not, suggesting she is calm. The Five of Wands represents conflict and change, and getting caught in the middle. You can't move forward with your goals because of this constant opposition. It is up to you to rise above the chaos and noise to calm the fighting. Differences in opinion are not always a bad thing, even if it differs from your own. Find common ground and try to work together to solve the conflict, Lovely.

SIX OF WANDS

Keywords: Self Confidence, Public Recognition, Success, Achievement

Reversed: Personal Success, Egotism, Shame

A confident and beautiful woman stands proudly holding a wand decorated with a wreath, representing her accomplishment and adoration. The Six of Wands appears when you have reached an important milestone or accomplished a lofty goal. It deserves celebration and acknowledgment. You have also received public recognition for your effort and deserve to bask in the light and allow your confidence to grow because of it. You are strong, beautiful, and can do hard things, Lovely. Be proud of yourself and your accomplishments.

SEVEN OF WANDS

Keywords: Challenge, Conflict, Protection, Defending Yourself

Reversed: Bullying, Giving Up, Exhaustion

A woman holds her lit wand over her shoulder, ready to use it if needed. Six wands point at her, armed with ill intent. The woman is a lover, not a fighter, and would prefer to avoid conflict if necessary. When push comes to shove, she will defend herself and her high position. The Seven of Wands represents conflict and challenges to your successes. They may be seen as haters or trolls who are likely jealous of your stature. Not to worry, Lovely, you are strong and deserving of your success. Don't let anyone knock you down.

EIGHT OF WANDS

Keywords: Alignment, Action, Change for the Better, Harmony

Reversed: Internal Alignment, Delays, Resistance to Change

A beautiful woman stretches her arms up high, aligning her body. Eight wands all pointing in the same direction organize behind her, representing laser-focused energy. The single flower and planet of opposite corners of the card represent balance and harmony. The Eight of Wands represents a change in your journey for the better. The universe will propel you toward your goal, even though it might not be in the direction you were expecting. Don't slow down because the change scares you, use your energy to fuel positive change and produce significant results.

NINE OF WANDS

Keywords: Resilience, Strength, Persistence, Adversity

Reversed: Struggle, Being Overly Defensive, Giving Up

A dark-haired woman tilts her head back to take a deep breath. She has been through a very difficult time and sees that it is not over yet. She has one final challenge left but it will push her to her limits. Her wand burns bright, representing her strength and resilience. The Nine of Wands represents a test of your grit. Things are hard, and life just keeps throwing setbacks your way. Now is the time to dig deep and find your inner strength to make it through this challenge. Don't let these challenges overwhelm you, Lovely. You are resilient, strong, and capable.

TEN OF WANDS

Keywords: Extra Responsibility, Carrying Extra Weight, Hard Work

Reversed: Doing it All, Delegation, Holding Onto a Burden

A strong woman carries a bundle of burning wands. They are a burden to carry, but she doesn't want any of their flames to go out. She understands the importance of keeping good energy flowing and feeding bright flames. The Ten of Wands represents carrying extra responsibility. It could be leading a team, taking weight off of a loved one, or helping a friend in a time of need. Even though carrying this extra weight is temporary, make sure it doesn't get too heavy. You don't want to let your own wand burn out, trying to keep everyone else's burning.

Keywords: Free Spirit, Inspiration, Limitless Potential, Imagination

Reversed: Redirecting Energy, Limiting Yourself, Forming Ideas

A bright young lady kissed with freckles, holds a burning wand in her hand. Her fire is bright, and her cup is full, overflowing even, with new ideas and inspiration. The Page of Wands represents creative energy and following a path just to see where it takes you. The page encourages you to harness your energy and ground it in reality, rather than letting it run through your imagination and then disappear. You are curious and hungry for more, it would serve you well to find a wise mentor to teach you how to channel your creative energy, Lovely.

KNIGHT OF WANDS

Keywords: Passion, Action, Adventure, Impulsive Decisions

Reversed: Passion Projects, Indecision, Scattered Energy

A tattooed woman stands with the wind blowing through her hair, her wand burning so hot it is starting a fire around her, representing her fiery passions coming to life. She is fully charged up and feels the need to dive into action and thrive on the thrills that lay ahead. The Knight is a sign that it's time to go for it. Chase after your dreams and let your energy from the universe take you where you need to be. Remember to keep your energy focused and that your impulsive decisions don't end up bringing you down in the long run, Lovely.

QUEEN OF WANDS

Keywords: Confidence, Extroverted Independence, Being Bold

Reversed: Introverted, Self Respect, Self Confidence, Humility

The Queen sits on her throne, gripping a burning wand, with her cat lying peacefully on her lap. Sunflowers bloom around her, representing happiness and satisfaction. Her cat represents the quiet side of herself, which she is attuned to, even though she is considered an extrovert. The Queen represents being upbeat, kind, and confident. You most likely lead a busy social life and find great joy in being around others that reflect your same creative vision. You never shy away from being your true, vibrant self. You inspire others by just being who you are, Lovely.

KING OF WANDS

Keywords: Natural Born Leader, Visionary, Entrepreneur, Drive

Reversed: High Expectations, Ruthlessness, Passion Projects

A woman with tanned skin and cropped hair sits upon her bejeweled throne, representing wealth and beauty. She is a great visionary and an even better leader. She understands how to harness her creative vision and enlist those necessary to bring it to life. The King is a very influential person, being very charismatic and driven but also doesn't waste time with activities or relationships that won't lead to anything in the long run. The king reminds you to lead your life with intent and a long-term view. You hold the power to create your legacy, Lovely.

Suit of CUPS

The Suit of Cups in Tarot deals with your feelings, intuition, and relationships. Cups cards are often referring to your emotions and the deep connection you make with others. Cups are associated with the element water; it can be soft and gentle or a powerful force to be reckoned with. Water is symbolic of healing, cleansing, and fluidity, whether that be in relationships, emotions, or intuition. The feminine element of water reflects the subtle power women have. It is adaptable, purifying, and flows so naturally.

ACE OF CUPS

Keywords: Love, New Relationships, Compassion, An Open Heart

Reversed: Self Love, Repressed Emotions, Intuition, A Guarded Heart

A golden chalice overflows with six streams, representing the five senses plus your intuition. The bright planet behind the cup represents the awakening of your human spirit and all of your senses flow out from your subconscious. The Ace of Cups represents divine love and compassion pouring out of you. With this love, you are more receptive to creative opportunities, new relationships, and building deep connections with your loved ones. The Ace is an invitation, it is up to you to accept it and embrace it with an open heart, Lovely.

TWO OF CUPS

Keywords: Partnership, Marriage, Mutual Attraction, Unified Love

Reversed: Break-ups, Distrust, Self Love, Acquaintances

Two women share a loving embrace, each holding a glass up to toast their relationship and pledge their love for one another. The vibrant colors of their dresses represent passion and energy, possibly sexual in nature. The Two of Cups represents deep connections and partnerships based on compassion, shared values, and unconditional love. It will appear when you are entering into a new relationship; a lover, friend, or business partner. In this partnership, you bring out the best in each other and together you will lift each other to higher planes.

THREE OF CUPS

Keywords: Friendship, Loyalty, Celebration, Uplifting Others

Reversed: Alone Time, Independence, Cliques, Intimate Groups

Three women of different backgrounds hold up their cups, in a toast of celebration and joy. Each woman admires and appreciates what the others can bring to the table. They all bring something unique to their friendship. The Three of Cups reminds you that life is better with friends, mentors, and people who will champion you and celebrate your accomplishments. They take your cup and lift it up with their own, just so you can return the favor for someone else. Collaboration, love, and loyalty will get you far in this world, Lovely

FOUR OF CUPS

Keywords: Meditation, Focus on Yourself, Growth, Being Unbothered

Reversed: Gossip, Retreat, Withdrawal, Concern for Others

A wavy-haired woman stands holding a bunch of flowers. Her eyes are closed with a look of peace on her face. Four hands are holding out chalices to her, but she doesn't even notice them. She doesn't need them, she already has everything she needs. The Four of Cups represents focusing on the relationship you have with yourself. There may be people offering you quick fixes or distractions from this relationship, but it is better to do the hard work yourself. The relationship you have with yourself is the most important one you will ever have, Lovely.

FIVE OF CUPS

Keywords: Regret, Failure, Pessimism, Wallowing, Victim Mentality

Reversed: Moving On, Forgiveness, Set Backs

A grieved woman sits on the edge of a rock, five cups are scattered around her, and three of them have been knocked down, representing failure and disappointment. But there are still two cups standing, meaning not everything is lost. The Five of Cups appears when a situation doesn't turn out how you wanted it to. Now all you can do is overanalyze what went wrong and cringe every time you think about it. It's good to allow yourself to be sad and feel your emotions, but don't sit in self-pity for too long, there are still two more cups waiting to be picked up.

SIX OF CUPS

Keywords: Inner Child, Nostalgia, Childhood Memories, Innocence

Reversed: Living in the Past, Seriousness, Forgiveness

A woman is dressed up to have a tea party. She fills the cups with her teapot, representing healing your inner child as an adult. Even though she is grown, it feels nostalgic to drink tea out of pretty little cups, all of her adult worries fade away and she can enjoy being young and free again. The Six of Cups represents reminiscing about happy memories from the past and reconnecting with the people that were in them with you. It can also suggest that you should reconnect with your inner child to help boost your creativity and be your more authentic self.

SEVEN OF CUPS

Keywords: Opportunities, Illusion, Wishful Thinking, Too Good to Be True

Reversed: Overwhelmed by Choices, Personal Values, Rose Colored Glasses

A lucky woman has six chalices being offered to her, each one embellished with beautiful jewels and precious stones. But inside each of those chalices hides a curse, representing that not everything is as it seems and not all that glitters is gold. The Seven of Cups encourages you to see beyond the illusion and focus on what is inside your own cup. Your ego may be pushing you in a certain direction; towards more money, power, and fame. Check-in with your higher self and determine what you really want to fill your cup with, because everything has a catch, Lovely.

EIGHT OF CUPS

Keywords: Disappointment, Anger, Withdrawal, Being 'Done'

Reversed: Trying Again, Aimlessness, Indecision, Second Chances

A platinum-haired woman hunches on a rock, all of her cups float around her and she is pouring out her last one. There is no use trying to save them now, might as well dump out what she does have left and start over. The Eight of Cups represents walking away from a disappointing situation; relationship, job, career, living arrangement, or project. That used to bring you joy and now only serves to bring you pain. You have tried to make it work in the past, but this is your sign to move on and protect your peace. You have permission to walk away, Lovely.

NINE OF CUPS

Keywords: Gratitude, Blessings, Satisfaction, Hard Work Paying Off

Reversed: Materialism, Dissatisfaction, Indulgence, Falling Short

A beautiful woman with glowing skin waters her magnificent garden. Nine chalices pour their water onto her plants, representing emotional fulfillment after bringing your desires to fruition. The Nine of Cups represents gratitude and satisfaction. It reminds you to take a moment and appreciate how far you have come and all the beautiful things you have in your life. It is also a sign from the universe that any wishes you have may soon be granted. Count your blessings, Lovely, and always find gratitude in your heart.

TEN OF CUPS

Keywords: Self Love, Blissful Relationships, Harmony, Alignment

Reversed: Self Contempt, Struggling Relationships, Disconnection

A vivacious woman stands with open arms; happy, thriving, and full of love. The ten cups and rainbow behind her represent having a full capacity to love and in turn, be loved back. The Ten of Cups represents happiness and love, specifically with yourself and in your relationships. You are feeling whole and in a state of peace after what might have been a long and difficult journey to find and fall in love with who you are as a person. With your newfound love for yourself, you are ready to find love with someone else, Lovely.

Keywords: Creative Opportunities, Signs from the Universe, Possibilities

Reversed: Creative Blocks, Waiting for a Sign, Emotional Immaturity

A woman stands at the edge of a vast sea, and by her toes swims a little fish. She scoops it up and to her surprise, it whispers a message in her ear. A sign from the universe, telling her she is on the right path. The Page of Cups suggests that a new opportunity has come to you out of the blue. Your energy is flowing like the water at the page's feet and it is time to use it to explore this new opportunity. The Page encourages you to have an open mind and make note of coincidences happening in your life. They may be a sign, Lovely.

KNIGHT OF CUPS

Keywords: Charm, Romance,
Imagination, Charisma

Reversed: Moodiness, Jealousy,
Unrealistic Expectations

A charming woman raises her cup as if to toast those around her. She is charming, kind, and romantic. She is beautiful inside and out and likes to surround herself with beautiful things, but not in a materialistic way. In a way that raises her vibrations and shows she knows how to enjoy the finer things in life. The Knight of Cups represents a classic romantic, in touch with their emotions and softer side. The Knight will gift you charm and charisma to win over whoever you may be trying to pursue. Go forth and be kind, Lovely, it does wonders for people.

QUEEN OF CUPS

Keywords: Compassionate, Intuitive, Introspective, Emotional Stability

Reversed: Self Care, Self Love, Emotionally Unbalanced

The Queen with eyes as blue as the sea sits upon her sand throne. She is an introspective and intuitive woman as well as a healer. Her cup flows over like a well, representing that her thoughts and feelings come from deep within herself. She doesn't require her cup to be filled. Instead, she helps others fill theirs. The Queen embodies nurturing and motherly energy, representing stability and healing. You are an amazing friend, lover, and confidant, lovely. Make sure you can keep your cup full and flowing as you help others with theirs.

KING OF CUPS

Keywords: Inspiration, New Opportunities, Growth, Potential

Reversed: An Emerging Idea, Lack of Direction, Distraction, Procrastination

The King sits on her stunning granite throne. She holds her cup in her left hand and peacefully rests her right hand on the arm of the chair, representing balance and control over her emotions. The sea behind her can be rough and wild, but she remains cool and calm. The King represents mastery over your emotions. You gracefully manage your emotions, letting yourself feel them, but not letting them get the better of you. If you find yourself in a difficult situation, the King advises you to keep your cool and stay emotionally mature, even though others may not.

Suit of SWORDS

The Suit of Swords in Tarot deals with the mind and intellect. Swords represent inner-thinking and reflect your thoughts, attitudes, and beliefs. Due to the sharp nature of swords in general they can often be double-edged. Representing the fine balance between intellect and power and how those two elements can be used for good or evil. The Suit of Swords is associated with the element of air. Relating to knowledge, action, power, and change.

ACE OF SWORDS

Keywords: Breakthroughs, Mental Clarity, Enlightenment, New Ideas

Reversed: Clouded Judgment, Reexamining Old Ideas, Inner Clarity

A ringed hand holds a jeweled blade into the sky, representing enlightenment and divinity. At the top of the blade sits a golden crown, a sign of victory, success, and wealth. The Ace is a sign of triumph and brilliance, but the jagged peaks in the distance represent challenges on the road to that triumph. The Ace of Swords is a sign of encouragement, you may be on the verge of a significant breakthrough, Lovely. Now is an excellent time to start a new project and use your new sight to make clear what was once hazy.

TWO OF SWORDS

Keywords: Difficult Decisions, Weighing Options, Missing Information

Reversed: Indecision, Information Overload, Confusion

A blind woman stands trying to make a difficult decision. Two swords cross through her arms in perfect alignment, representing her weighing her thoughts and lining up the pros and cons of each option. The Two of Swords indicates that you must make a difficult decision. Your head and your heart may be pointing you in opposite directions and you desperately need more information to make your choice. Just like the blind woman, you must trust your intuition when making your final decision, Lovely.

THREE OF SWORDS

Keywords: Heartbreak, Backstabbing, Emotional Pain, Fake Friends

Reversed: Blaming Yourself, Releasing Pain, Clarity After Emotion, Forgiveness

Two friends grieve, one friend has three swords protruding from her chest and tears running down her cheeks representing immense pain and sorrow. The other friend consoles her, but is she truly sad? Her face looks more cunning than sorrowful, and the heart tattoo on her arm suggests her comfort may be disingenuous. The Three of Swords represents heartbreak and possibly fake friends at the root of it. It is a sign to guard your heart and be selective with who you trust, Lovely.

FOUR OF SWORDS

Keywords: Relaxation, Mediation, Recuperation, Self Care

Reversed: Exhaustion, Burn-Out, Stagnation, Laziness

A woman lays on a bed of pillows, representing rest and relaxation. She holds a blade in her hand contemplating what she must do with it once this rest period concludes. The three swords pointing down at her represent a large battle ahead. Her tattoos are reminders of the previous battles she's gone through. The Four of Swords represents a rest period before your next challenge. Taking time to recharge after a long and stressful journey is essential to maintaining your productivity, Lovely.

FIVE OF SWORDS

Keywords: Determination, Conflict, Winning at All Costs, Competition

Reversed: Passive Aggressive, Past Resentment, Team Work

A fierce woman brandishes a sword, no look of pain on her face even though four other swords jut from her body. Despite this, she has won the battle and crushed her enemies, but at what cost? The Five of Swords represents conflict and bad blood post-battle. You may have given too much to the fight, and even though you won, picking up the pieces is more difficult than you expected. The Five of Swords reminds you that not every battle needs to be fought. Pick and choose which battles mean the most to you, and life will be more peaceful for you, Lovely.

SIX OF SWORDS

Keywords: Transition, Rite of Passage, Moving On, Greener Pastures

Reversed: Unfinished Business, Resistance to Change, Making it Work

A kneeling woman looks off to the right, seeing a better future for herself. She knows this new place will be better for her, but she can't help being sad about leaving her familiar home. The swords around her hips are the only things she is taking with her on this new journey. The Six of Swords suggests you are going through a transition, either chosen or forced upon you. Either way, the card encourages you to let go of whatever you are holding onto from your past and gaze into your bright new future, Lovely.

SEVEN OF SWORDS

Keywords: Deception, Betrayal, Strategy, Cunning, Secrets

Reversed: True Intentions, Imposter Syndrome, Victim Blaming

A devious woman holds a bouquet of flowers, hiding swords in the bunch. She has hidden swords all over her body, representing the dangerous nature of keeping secrets. The Seven of Swords suggests you are keeping a secret, and doing everything in your power to keep it hidden. You are strategic and cunning, which can be a great thing, but when used to deceive people things can get dangerous for you, Lovely. If you continue with this, you may find that your carefully laid plans unravel in your hands, and no one is there to help you pick up the pieces.

EIGHT OF SWORDS

Keywords: Self Imposed Restrictions, Feeling Trapped, Victim Mentality

Reversed: Inner Critic, Release from Negative Thoughts, New Perspectives

A woman hangs her head, trapped in an intricate interlocking of swords. The swords represent the internal battle she finds herself in. She feels stuck with no way out and no matter how hard she fights she still ends up in the same situation. The Eight of Swords reflects being trapped with limited options for escape. You may feel powerless to change the situation you are in. It is a constant battle to stay afloat and come out alive. You may stand in your own way, Lovely. You are stronger than you think. Free your mind and believe in yourself.

NINE OF SWORDS

Keywords: Anxiety, Dark Thoughts, Worry, Feeding into Fear

Reversed: Releasing Worry, Coping Skills, Trauma

A somber woman holds her knees to her chest, a fire of worry burning around her. Nine swords point down at her from above, representing the negative thoughts weighing heavy on her mind. Her two-toned hair represents her dark and light thoughts, showing she is still capable of happiness. The Nine of Swords suggests that you have many dark thoughts weighing you down and that you're stuck in a negative thought cycle. It is time to break free from those thoughts and worries, Lovely. If you can't do it on your own, seek out those you love and ask for help.

TEN OF SWORDS

Keywords: Defeat, Deep Wounds, Learning Lessons, An Abrupt End

Reversed: Recovery, Resisting the End, Regeneration

A woman crouches down, ten swords stick out of her back. Each one painfully pierced into her skin taking a piece of her strength, until she couldn't stand it anymore. She knows it is time to accept defeat and that's okay. The Ten of Swords marks a painful, abrupt end to something, leaving you feeling raw and broken. Pain like this goes deeper than the surface, and I'm sorry, Lovely. It's easy to fall into a victim mentality in these situations, but don't do that. Use positive energy to learn from the pain and gain wisdom from your defeat.

Keywords: New Ideas, Thirst for Knowledge, Guidance, Adventure

Reversed: Self-Expression, Stagnation, Haphazard Actions

A silver-haired woman clutches a sword, using the blade to cover one eye, allowing her to see something others may not. The page is wise, but always seeks to gain more knowledge and never claims to be the smartest person in the room. The Page appears when you are starting a new chapter in your life. She offers you guidance, knowledge, and a thirst for adventure. If you are facing a challenge use your wit to get you through and try looking at it from a new angle. Most importantly, never shy away from learning something new, from someone new, Lovely.

KNIGHT OF SWORDS

Keywords: Ambition, Patience, Quick Witted, Determination

Reversed: Restless, Impulsive, Burn-Out, Dominating

A white knight tilts her head up to the sky, gently holding her sword. Her ambition flows through her like her cape flowing in the breeze. She is eager to complete her mission but knows she must be patient and wait until the universe is ready for her. The hilt of her sword gleams, letting her know it is time for action. The Knight of Swords represents ambition and drive. You are a highly motivated person, ready to finally pursue your dreams after waiting for the right time. The Knight gives you her wit and determination to propel you forward and achieve your goals.

QUEEN OF SWORDS

Keywords: Direct Communication, Firm Boundaries, Unbiased Judgment

Reversed: Easily Influenced, Sugar Coating, Rude, Judgemental

The powerful Queen with her burning red hair looks out upon her people, she is unflinching in the face of bad news or a scandalous confession. Her sword is drawn but never pointed at anyone, even when criticized. The moth tattoo on her chest represents a connection with intuition, giving her a strong sense of self. The Queen is unbiased but never shies away from telling it like it is. She is telling you to put your emotions aside and be clear about what you want from life. Be straightforward about your expectations and speak your truth, Lovely.

KING OF SWORDS

Keywords: Intellect, Mental Clarity, Truth, Authority

Reversed: Quiet Power, Power Hungry, Manipulation

The dark-skinned King sits on her throne, her sword pointing straight up, symbolizing her connection with a higher consciousness. Three stars decorate her throne representing intellect, power, and truth. The King can see more clearly than most, making her an advisor to many. You may find yourself in need of guidance from someone with more knowledge on a subject than you. Someone who can give you impartial advice and guide you in the right direction. Seek guidance, but also trust your own intuition, Lovely.

Suit of PENTACLES

The Suit of Pentacles in Tarot represents dealings in the material realm; Finances, health, work, and creativity. They reflect how we shape, transform and grow the physical world around us. They also deal with The Ego and self-image. The Pentacles are associated with the element of earth. Earth is more tangible than any other sign and therefore allows us to have more control over it, however, finding that control is not always as easy as it may seem.

ACE OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Manifestation, Abundance, Financial Freedom, Opportunities

Reversed: Lost Opportunities, Debt, Big Purchases

A hand adorned with golden jewelry holds out a coin, free for the taking by anyone with the wherewithal to do so. The landscape beneath is covered with blooming flowers, representing abundance and health. The Ace of Pentacles represents a new opportunity presenting itself to you out of nowhere. This opportunity deals specifically in the physical world; financials, career, health, and goals. The opportunity is a welcome one and the Ace encourages you to take it. Understand it is not a free ride, however. You must put in the work to make it successful, Lovely.

TWO OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Balance, Time Management, Priorities, Adaptability

Reversed: Over-Commitment, Disorganisation, Slower Times

A bright young woman balances two coins in her hands, representing shifting priorities. The woman looks at one, while still easily balancing the other, suggesting she can give more attention to one priority and still manage the other. The Two of Pentacles represents juggling multiple responsibilities; Parenthood, career, multiple jobs – all with a high workload. You are fully capable of handling it all, but life sure can get busy with so much going on. It's easy to lose sight of the big picture. Keep your priorities straight and take time for yourself, Lovely.

THREE OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Teamwork, Collaboration, Learning, Feedback

Reversed: Self-Serving, Working Alone, Miscommunication

A woman stands between two beautiful columns that she helped build. The columns represent hard work and a job well done. While the three golden coins just above her, represent the team that put everything together. The Three of Pentacles represents teamwork and appreciation for the unique element that each member brings to the table. It reminds you to learn from others and in turn, teach others. No one can do it alone, Lovely. Working together will help you find success in your endeavors.

FOUR OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Saving Money, Control, Security, Conservation

Reversed: Hoarding, Greed, Overspending

A woman holds two coins tightly to her hips and two more hover near her. She looks off to the left, possibly missing out on something. Even though the woman feels left out, she would rather keep her coins than spend them on something frivolous. Like the woman, you are a disciplined financier, which is a great thing. But the Four of Pentacles suggests that you may need to reevaluate your relationship with money. Instead of enjoying the comforts of your wealth, you cling to every cent, fearing it may soon disappear.

FIVE OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Financial Loss, Worry, Hard Times, Focusing on the Negative

Reversed: Recovering from a Financial Loss, End of a Hard Time

A teary-eyed woman looks back at her past, where she was once wealthy and happy. She now only has five coins left to her name. There's something good waiting for her around the corner, but she is too focused on what used to be to notice. The Five of Pentacles suggests you have fallen on hard times, everything was taken away from you in one fail swoop. It also suggests you have been focusing too much on the negative aspects of your situation. Focus your energy on positive things rather than letting negative thoughts consume you. This too shall pass, Lovely.

SIX OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Sharing, Giving and Receiving, Generosity, Charity

Reversed: Self Care, Unpaid Debts, Taking More Than You Give

A curvy woman holds a flower out for someone, in the other she holds a scale; representing fairness and equality. Her braids are decorated with golden rings, suggesting she has enough wealth to go around. The Six of Pentacles represents giving and receiving. Sometimes you are on the giving end, sometimes the receiving. You may find yourself in the position to help someone out monetarily and are happy to do so. Money comes and goes, and helping the people you love is more important to you than wealth will ever be.

SEVEN OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Long Term Goals, Investments, Perseverance, Sustainability

Reversed: Short Term Goals, Immediate Gratification, Reaping Rewards

A soon-to-be mother gazes at her swollen belly. This pregnancy has been long and difficult for her, but she knows her sweet babe will be worth all of the pain. The Seven of Pentacles represents long-term goals and front-loading work. You have worked long and hard to nurture your tiny seed into a thriving garden. Take a moment to enjoy the fruits of your labor, Lovely. You may feel fatigued from all your work, so make sure you take care of yourself as well as your little garden.

EIGHT OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Learning, Skill

Development, Mastery, Apprenticeship

Reversed: Perfectionism, Self

Development, Trying a New Skill

A skilled woman carefully carves out eight perfectly round coins. Behind her, plants grow and flowers bloom, but she has long since zoned into her work and hasn't noticed them. The Eight of Pentacles is a card of apprenticeship and mastery. It suggests you are a hard worker, constantly learning, growing, and perfecting your craft. You are meticulous and dedicated to your work, slowly but surely becoming a master of your trade and creating beautiful things. But don't forget to stop and admire the beauty around you, Lovely, life is not all about work.

NINE OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Abundance, Financial Independence, Luxury, Self-Made

Reversed: Hustling, Self-Worth, Overworking Yourself

A well-dressed woman stands in a beautiful garden. Her back is decorated with golden paint, representing her wealth and social status. Her garden is blooming with vibrant flowers, and nestled between the vines sit nine golden coins, representing her fruitful accomplishments. The Nine of Pentacles suggests you enjoy the luxurious things in life, who doesn't? You deserve it, Lovely. You have grown this wealth and choose to enjoy it, while still maintaining a healthy relationship with it. You stay humble but never downplay your accomplishments.

TEN OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Wealth, Family, Stability, Financial Legacy, Financial Freedom

Reversed: More Money More Problems, Financial Loss

Three sisters in silk dresses hold each other closely, representing close family bonds and sisterhood. They stand under an arch of ten golden coins, representing wealth and security. The Ten of Pentacles represents complete financial stability and accomplishment. You have worked very hard to get where you are today and now you get to enjoy it. You care deeply about your family and understand family is more important than wealth, but now that you have it you can enjoy it together. Enjoy your success, family, and financial freedom, Lovely.

PAGE OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Manifestation, Financial Opportunity, Skill Development, New Beginnings

Reversed: Procrastination, Learning from Mistakes, Wishful Thinking

A brilliant woman stands manifesting her goals, she has already gained one golden coin, now focusing her energy on gaining more. The flower vines growing up her body suggest that it's working. The Page of Pentacles appears when you are tapping into your ability to manifest goals and dreams. Suggesting you may be starting a new job, hobby, or educational experience. You are excited about the new possibilities in front of you, knowing if you put your mind to it, you can achieve whatever you dream up.

KNIGHT OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Hard Work, Routine, Productivity, Result Seeking

Reversed: Self-Discipline, Boredom, Perfectionism, Break in Routine

The Knight looks off into the distance, never distracted by what others are doing. She is determined and hard-working. Her heeled foot holds down her coin, suggesting she has a good handle on her work and does it in style. The Knight of Pentacles appears when you are working methodically towards your goals. You have created a plan and are sticking to it until the end, no matter how dull the grind can be. The Knight truly understands how tiring it can be to keep going, but she encourages you to keep at it. You will soon find your success, Lovely.

QUEEN OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Nurturing, Working Parent, Financial Provider, Practicality

Reversed: Financial Independence, Self-Care, Work vs Family

The expecting Queen holds her pregnant belly with one hand, the other holding up a coin. Representing the balance of motherhood and a career. Flowers bloom around her feet representing abundance and financial success. The Queen is the ultimate archetype for the working parent, suggesting you also fall into those roles. You are a provider for your family but still, find the time to nurture them and be there in times of need. Even though the careful balance you have going may feel like it could tip at any moment, know you are doing a good job, Lovely.

KING OF PENTACLES

Keywords: Wealth Management, Business, Leadership, Ambition

Reversed: Financially Inept, Poor Business Decisions, Obsession

The King sits on a beautiful throne embellished with jewels and gold. In her right hand, she holds a scepter, symbolic of power. In her left hand, she holds a golden coin, symbolic of her wealth and material influence. She takes her financial dealings very seriously. The King is a representation of material wealth and abundance. Like the King, you are very successful at earning and managing wealth, likely working hard for your success. King encourages you to stay on the conservative path to wealth and not make any risky investments, Lovely.
